

Shabbat Musical Instrument Policy at Germantown Jewish Centre

Religious Services
Acoustic (non-electric, not amplified) instruments may be used, subject to the policy of the prayer community in which the service takes place. Details below for specific prayer communities are examples of what has been done in the past; please consult the leaders of each prayer community for details on current policy.
Cherry Sanctuary	Minyan Masorti	Dorshei Derekh	Kol D'Mamah
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • hand drums • no stick drums 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • no musical instruments permitted 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • hand drums • hand percussion • no stick drums • acoustic guitar, not amplified • tambourine 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • hand drums • hand percussion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • must be announced at least a week before service date 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • must be announced at least a week before service date 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • must be announced through publicity

Parties, Kiddush
No musical instruments may be used at public functions. For specific guidelines for bands and musicians, please consult with the Executive Director.
Public Functions	Private Functions
Open to community	Invited guests only
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • no musical instruments permitted 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • hand drums • hand percussion • no stick drums • acoustic guitar, not amplified • acoustic instruments, not amplified • no DJ's or playing of pre-recorded music